UNIVERSITY OF PASSAU (GERMANY)

The University of Passau and the Isfahan University of Technology forming an essential part in the aspiration to extend international co-operation, hereby agree to further promote mutual co-operation in higher education and scientific research.

1. The following general forms of co-operation will be pursued within fields that are mutually acceptable:
 - Exchange of undergraduate and graduate students,
 - Exchange of faculty members and research scholars,
 - Joint research activities such as joint research programs and projects,
 - Organizing joint symposia, workshops and conferences,
 - Exchange of scientific materials and information,
 - Encourage cooperation between faculty members in both parties in research publications, especially in international journals,
 - Providing Internship and sabbatical opportunities,
 - Joint academic graduate programs.
2. Themes of joint activities and conditions for utilizing the results achieved as well as arrangement for scientific visits, exchanges and other forms of co-operation will be developed mutually for each specific case and are described in a separate agreement to be entered into co-operating faculties.
3. All scientists, lecturers and students, regardless of, for instance, ethnic affiliations, sex, religion and other preferences, can take part in the exchange on the basis of individual invitations, which either of the contracting parties will send.
4. All financial arrangements will be negotiated for each specific case.
5. The clauses of this MOU may be revised or changed only upon the consent of both parties. The proposed alterations shall be presented by the parties and signed accordingly.

6. This MOU will come into force from the moment it is signed by both parties, and is valid for five years, at which time it shall either be cancelled or subject to renewal with the concurrence of both parties. A letter with a 1-year termination notice can also cancel this agreement. In such an eventuality both parties are fully responsible for fulfilling and abiding by the terms and obligations towards those students covered by this agreement.
